R2	Tyler G	Impressive progress with his writing and phonics. Tyler is also a very kind friend to all the children in R2.	Safa R
R3	Holly Q	Holly has had a fantastic week at school! I've been impressed with her contributions during lessons, her creativity and her imagination. Holly is always ready to lend a helping hand, remind you if you've forgotten to do something, or sing you a song if you're feeling down! Keep up the good work Holly!	Jordan-James G
1A	Saair H	This week Saair has impressed Miss Green and I with his enthusiasm towards his learning. He has been practising his cursive handwriting in English and working really sensibly with his partner during Maths lessons. We are very proud of you Saair! Keep it up!	Shania S
1Q	Tasnim B F	Tasnim is such a mature and independent girl! She has beautiful manners and has really started showing how grown up she is... It is almost like having another adult in the room! I am also so proud of how she helps others in the class with their learning, when we work in partners. Thank you for being YOU, Tasnim!	Mohammed K
1S	Alexandra C	WOW! Since coming back from the February half term, Lexi has made a continued, conscious effort to make the correct choices in class. Also, throughout the week she has asked so many interesting questions. Keep up the amazing work Anaiah!	Ansar T

Well done Lubna!	Isabella L P
3B	Thomas-Michael C	I could find a reason every week to pick Tommy because he amazes me every day with all his hard work and effort. We love having you in 3B Tommy. Keep up the hard work.	Denis H
3L	Zaharah B	Zaharah loves school and is a happy, friendly girl, who is always kind and very helpful. This week she excelled in our P.E lesson and was able to plan a dance sequence about the Vikings.
