

Spellings in context:

Spelling Rule 'ai' + CEW	Spelling Rule 'ee' + CEW	Spelling Rule 'igh' + CEW
It rains a lot in April. I had a pain in my arm. The cat had a blue sail. My mum has a long chain. The train travels on the rail. The snail is slow. He went on a train to London. My dad says 'Eat your vegetables' Are you hungry? We were in school yesterday.	There are lots of sheep in Wales I see the beach. He went to sleep on the carpet. The car had a loud beep. Miss Morrow was keen to wrap her presents. Miss Jones climbed a tree. I have three cats. It was very snowy outside. What is the time? His top was green.	Mum switched off the light. I go to bed at night. You should not fight with your friends. I might eat a cake. I took a flight to Mexico. My sight is bad I need glasses. Turn right at the next road. Miss Spinks has long hair. I love you You should wear a coat when it is cold.

Spelling Rule 'oa' + CEW	Spelling Rule 'oo' + CEW	Spelling Rule 'ow' + CEW
His boat is big. I have a yellow coat. The goat was in the field. There was a moat around the castle. The baker baked a loaf of bread. The toad was big and green. You eat oats when you have porridge. You should brush your teeth. They had six chocolate coins Tomorrow it will be Saturday.	You see the moon at night. There are lots of books in the box. Look at the stars in the sky. It will be bedtime soon. You eat soup with a spoon. I have grey walls in my room. The witch had a long broom. He went to school. My mum loves me. She has a pink dress.	You can go down the slide. It is now time for bedtime. The dog has brown patches. The queen wears a crown. Row your boat down the stream. You must bow at the end of your performance There is lots of people in the crowd. We must get on the bus or we will be late. Go to your room!

